

Date: 10/03/2024

To: International Services Office

From: Rasul Coleman
Center for Career Services
The George Washington University
Washington, DC 20052
202-994-8787

Re: Yanxi Li

The purpose of this memo is to request Curricular Practical Training (CPT) authorization for the above named student. This student will be enrolled in Professional Praxis, which is the appropriate curricular course for their school.

This student has received a job or internship offer where they will work on projects directly related to their coursework. The responsibilities of this student's position meet the requirements of the Professional Praxis program. Therefore, I am requesting that this student receive CPT authorization for the semester indicated below.

Should you need additional information on this situation, please let me know.

Thank you.

Student's Name: Yanxi Li
Employer: Inter-American Development Bank
Address: 2803 Poag St, Alexandria, VA 22303
Supervisor: Eduardo Marconi
Phone Number: 202-674-8282
Number of working hours per week: 20
Semester of Professional Praxis registered for: Fall 2024

(Please note, the dates listed above will always fall within the official run time of the semester the student has been registered for; even if the student requested extended dates on their Professional Praxis application materials. Students are to understand that all final CPT Authorization dates are at the discretion of ISO.)